Dear Gene:

I have had a further opportunity to look into the case of [redacted] We like him over here; the immediate problem is a medical one in view of an accident he had in 1949, which while apparently not in itself at all serious, may have some effect on his particular usefulness for the job for which he was under consideration. I am trying to see what I can do about this.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

December 20, 1951

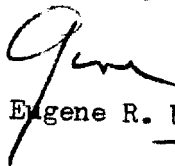

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

STAT  has an application to join your organization and an appointment tomorrow to see one of your staff members in Washington. I have known him since he was a small boy, although I have not seen him or been in touch with him in recent years. However, I know his father and mother intimately and am sure with such parents whom I regard very highly he is bound to have good qualities. I would personally appreciate your giving this boy careful consideration.

I have been off on an extended trip but hope to be in Washington for awhile. I would certainly like to see you. In the meantime wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,

Eugene R. Black
